100% Fall Protection

- 100% Fall Protection is an intermediate on-line course designed to teach you the basic guidelines and methods of fall protection safety. We will review fall hazards, fall hazard evaluation and fall hazard controls that are critical to health and safety in construction. In addition, this course covers construction safety according to OSHA and ANSI standards.
- This fall protection course focuses on fall injuries and fatalities and the definition of 100% fall protection. You will be taught the six steps of the fall protection program and how you can make the program work at your construction site. Additionally, the course covers ways to recognize, evaluate, control and eliminate fall hazards at the job site.
- This on-line fall safety course will help construction workers and employees who are responsible for following OSHA and ANSI safety regulations. More specifically, this course is designed for: Construction Supervisors, Construction Managers, and Safety Officers.
